Email: clerk@eatonpc.org.uk

Parishioners may be interested in joining the last Parish Council meeting on Monday, 9th December at Eaton, when agenda items will include the final determination of the 2025/6 Budget and Precept. Also there will be discussion on an application for grant funding from the Eastwell History Group.

Parish Council meetings in 2025 will resume a bimonthly pattern with the first to take place on Monday, 13th January 2025, and full details will be posted on the Parish Council website.

Would you like an allotment in 2025?

Doctors heartily (!!!) recommend them.
Contact the clerk, please, as soon as possible.

Finally there were some concerns raised at the November meeting about the increasing occurrence of roadworks in the locality and more often than not where nothing much seems to be happening.

So a reminder about the One Network for finding details of changes to roads and temporary disruptions such as roadworks, a web-based road management platform that connects road operators, utilities, contractors, traffic management teams and the public with an aim to reduce disruption.

Christmas Angels

Dear Friends,

Do you believe in angels? If you do, then you are not alone. According to a poll commissioned by the Bible Society, one in three people in the UK believe in angels and the same proportion feel they have a guardian angel watching over them.

Of course, for some, angels are in the same category as fairies or chubby cherubs. But that's far from the Bible's descriptions of angelic beings. From the Old Testament to the new, the visit of an angel is always alarming. That's why when angels appear to deliver a message from God, they begin by saying "Fear not".

This Christmas, angels appear on our Ironstone Villages Family of Churches Christmas card - angels that have been drawn by children from Waltham Primary School. It can remind us that angels feature prominently in the Christmas story of the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem.

Think, for example of the visit of the Angel Gabriel to Mary in Nazareth to tell her that she would conceive and give birth to a son, who was to be called Jesus. Or of the angel of the Lord who appeared to the shepherds out in the fields near Bethlehem to tell them of the birth of God's promised Saviour, who they would find wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.

Most of the Christmas carols we enjoy singing at this time of year also mention angels. For example, Hark the herald angels sing, glory to the new-born King; The angel Gabriel from heaven came; Angels from the realms of glory; The first Nowell the angel did say, to name but four.

In spite of initial fear at the awesome presence of an angel, the message of the angels is one of joy and gladness - a message of good news sung to those in need of the light of hope.

In the carol It came upon the midnight clear, the 'glorious song of old' the angels bring is one of 'Peace on the earth, goodwill to all, from heaven's all-gracious King'.

The message of the angels continues to come to our war-torn and weary world; but we need to 'hush the noise of mortal strife', in order to hear 'the love-song which they bring'.

May I wish you Christmas joy and peace, as we celebrate again the love-song which the angels bring,

With all good wishes,

(John Barr, Rector)

Christmas Day Service

St Denys' Church

Goadby Marwood

10.30 am

Dear Villager,

Please join us on Christmas morning to celebrate the real meaning of Christmas, with traditional carols and prayers and to give thanks for all that this Christmas has brought us - time with family and friends and the sharing of festive food and gifts.

After the service refreshments will be served and the collection will be shared between St Denys' Church and Médecins sans Frontières, a charity supporting doctors and nurses who volunteer to work in war zones; a charity only funded by charitable donations.

Thank you and Happy Christmas from Goadby Marwood Church.

SERVICE OF REMEMBERING AND THANKSGIVING

For several years now, it has become our custom to offer a Service of Remembering at Eastwell Church on a Sunday leading up to Christmas. This year, it is being held on:

Sunday, 15th December at 10.30 am in Eastwell Parish Church

We plan the service at this time of year to acknowledge that when you have lost a loved one, Christmas can be a difficult time. This hour-long service provides an opportunity to remember those who will not be around the table this Christmas, to reflect and to pray and to find reassurance in God's love and mercy. You will be able to light a candle for anyone who you especially wish to remember at this time.

We write personally to all bereaved families who we have been in contact with over the last two years, and to some people who we know have attended in the past. However, the service is open to everyone and anyone (we have lots of candles!). Please do invite anyone who you believe would benefit from coming.

We are delighted to let you know that this year, the Archdeacon of Leicester, Richard Worsfold, will be the preacher at our service.

PUPPET NATIVITY with READINGS and CAROLS

Once again the Christmas story is being told, enacted and celebrated at

PUPPET NATIVITY, EASTWELL

We are asking families if their children would like to take part in the puppet nativity this year. Apart from an older child reading the narration, there will be no speaking parts.

If, as in the past, they would like to help make the puppets, we would love to hear from them NOW! As well as making the puppets, there will be about four practices before the performance on Christmas Eve, and we would very much like the children to commit (as far as possible) to attending each one.

We will be sending notes to all families giving further details of dates, etc. It would also be great if any adults would like to help with making puppets. Also this is not limited to Eastwell children - we were so short of children last year that several adults had to stand in for them.

If you are interested and would like to get involved, please email either Stew at sturquhart@msn.com or suewatford2@gmail.com (01949 359211, mob 075222 61667).

ABOUT ME

I'm Georgia Wallace, a former elite gymnast and contemporary dancer. I trained with the GB squad as an artistic gymnast before transitioning to dance. I have a degree in contemporary dance, where I studied pilates, yoga, ballet and contemporary techniques. I have also coached gymnastics at East London Gymnastic Club and created personalised fitness programmes.

I will be drawing on my experience and interest in Somatics to inform both the fitness and flexibility sessions. I aim to enhance mobility, energy levels and strength for everyone who attends, while also creating a space for people to enjoy coming together.

If possible, cash would be the preferred method of payment; however, I can take contactless payments.
